

ASE Editing Awards Guideline and Entry Form 2008

Following the success of the 2007 peer assessed Editing Awards, the Australian Screen Editors Guild is pleased to announce that the categories for the 2008 Awards have been increased to six, as follows:

Best Editing in a Feature Film,
Best Editing in a Documentary,
Best Editing in a Television Drama
Best Editing in a Short Film
Best Editing in Television non drama
Best Editing in a Commercial

Eligibility:

Editors entering the competition must be members of the Australian Screen Editors Guild, specifically editors have to be a financial member during the period 1 July 2007 to 31 December 2008.

All entries must have had at least one public screening or broadcast or video/DVD release between 1st July 2007 and 30th June 2008.

Feature films must have had a theatrical or video/DVD release;

Documentary entries may be either a full length documentary or 2x1/2 hour episodes of a series;

Television drama may be a single episode from a series, or a one off telemovie;

Short films – up to 40 minutes duration.

Television Non Drama may be a single episode from a series.

Commercials must have had a theatrical, television or viral release.

One entry per category per editor. Co-editors may make a joint entry. Compilations will not be accepted. Entries will be accepted on DVD only. It is the responsibility of the entrant to provide a DVD that is easy to duplicate. DVD entries will not be returned.

Accredited members who enter will deem themselves ineligible to judge in that category.

Applications must be completed and received by 12th September 2008. Postal entries must be postmarked 12th September 2008 or earlier.

Judging:

Accredited members will conduct judging.

Judges decisions will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Three finalists from each category will be announced in the week commencing 19th November 2008

Presentation of Awards will be held in December 2008 in Sydney.

Co-editors will receive individual trophies if they are members of the Guild. Trophies will be awarded to ASE members only

Submissions:

- Completed application form
- 2 DVD's of completed production
- $50 (inc GST) cheque payable to the ASE or signed credit card permission.

Entry Forms can be downloaded from the ASE website: www.screeneditors.com